

ANTI CORRUPTION SILENT RALLY

ANTI CORRUPTION SILENT RALLY- Walkathon, a public event organized by the students of Jain College, RR Nagar Campus on 25th June 2011 from 11.30 am to 01.00 pm.

India Against Corruption movement is an expression of collective anger of people of India against corruption.

We have all come together persuade the Government to enact the Jan Lokpal Bill. It is this Bill which would create an effective deterrence against corruption. The anti-corruption civil society movement, which has gained momentum in a year dominated by scams, is set to witness increasing participation from the student fraternity.

Thus, Students of Jain College are organizing a Silent Rally to create awareness about their role in Nation Building- A Walkathon, Around the College Campus covering 3km radius of RR Nagar area today i.e., 25th of June 2011.

Ms. Archana., Mr. H.P Prakash and all the staff will be joining our student fraternity in the walkathon today.

We would like to invite every one who has a heart to make a difference to our nation and to put our hands together to eradicate corruption from our country and wide spread this movement around!!
