

CELEBRATION of 'HINDI UTSAV'

The Department of Hindi, Jain College, V V Puram celebrates HINDI UTSAV 2011-12 on Thursday, 22nd Dec 2011 in the college premises. This UTSAV was organized to create awareness among the students and generate interest towards Hindi language and appreciate the intricacies and beauty of its literature.

Dr. Prabhan Gurudutta, Chairman, Kuvempu Bhasha Bharati, Bangalore presided over the function as the Guest of Honor.

Dr. R Chenraj Jain, Chairman, The JGI Group, Prof. K.S. Shantamani, Chief Mentor, The JGI Group, Dr. B.T. Venkatesh, Director – PU Programmes, graced the occasion.

The department flag off the UTSAV with an inaugural ballet titled 'Ritu – Sringara' which showcased the grandeur of Hindi Literature and the poet Sri. Suryakant Tripathi. The ballet depicted the six seasons of India – Vasanta, Greeshma, Pavas, Sharad, Hemaat and Shishir. The Nature undergoes tremendous changes in these seasons. She treasures the beauty in her and symbolically explains the concept of Shrishti, Stiti and Laya.

This was followed by various cultural programmes like mime show, Qawali, a dance performance which was a tribute to legendary Bollywood actor Dev Anand.

The Department also took pride in releasing its yearly edition of 'YUVA – MANCH' – A Hindi Magazine.