TARUSAMSKRITI 2011 - PERFORMING ARTS

“Tarusamskriti 2011 - Performing Arts,” is an Inter-Collegiate Cultural Extravaganza celebrated by Jain College V V Puram. It is the Bangalore’s ONLY Indian-Cultural Fest.

TARU (Tree) is a symbol of the Expression of Life Forces which energises and supports our mother Earth and the rich natural resources she posses. It is a World within the World, sustaining many forms of life.

Young students are very much like TARU, clinging immense potential to invigorate and enrich the society around them.

Here is a wonderful opportunity for them to unfold their latent potential in an ambience charged with fun for the gratification and insight for the growth.

Be a part of one of the most happening Cultural Extravaganza celebrated by Jain College V V Puram "TARU SAMSKRITI 2011"

The theme for this year's Tarusamskriti is "Srushti"-The Creation.

It is believed that the Wind emerges from Sky. Fire emerges from this Wind. Water emerges from this Fire. Earth emerges from this Water. And finally the birth of Medicine and Mankind takes place from this Earth.

Over 25 top colleges from Bangalore will take part in this Cultural Fest.
