Jain College, 97.8 per cent
Akshay believes that it doesn't take a lot to get a great score. "Being consistent and dedicating as little as an hour a day to study with utmost concentration is all that is required," vouches Akshay. He also says that he used to study only five days a week.

"Textbooks are always the best resource to study from. I also looked at some study material from college," he explains.

Akshay likes reading and playing badminton. "To de-stress, I would go for a walk in the park or just go play outside," says Akshay.

He says that the best way to handle exams is to be relaxed but work hard and consistently. His parents Anuradha T S and Manjunath C K are very happy with the results. Anuradha says, "We knew that Akshay could do it, as he has always been a studious kid." Akshay wants to do BCom and aims to be a chartered accountant.
