

The New Indian Express

Jain College Students Shout Out 'Green'

Bangalore: Over 200 students of the Department of Interior Design of Sri Bhagawan Mahaveer Jain College took out a rally on environment protection to mark the first annual environment awareness campaign of the college in the city recently.

The students performed a street play on the theme 'Earth is all we have and we are all the Earth has'. Yeshwanth, a student, said that 40 saplings were planted on the premises of the college and 20 plastic dust bins were replaced with bamboo bins. "Starting from this year, every batch passing out will plant saplings and leave their fingerprints on the pot," he added. The students marched to the Town Hall in a procession, raising slogans against wastage of water, deforestation, excess plastic use and exhaustible resources.