

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Students pedal for the cause of wildlife

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bangalore: Ten students from Jain College set out cycling to Nagarahole on Thursday. All NCC cadets attached to 7 Karnataka Battalion NCC, Bangalore, they will spread awareness about wildlife conservation and visit places of historical importance along their way. Flagged off by Colonel PK Singh, commanding officer of 7 KAR BN NCC, the cadets set off on their mission and will be away till January 28.

MISSION CYCLING

"I'm excited to be part of this. It's an opportunity for me to experience something new," said Harshit S, a II-year student.

The mission hopes to inculcate the spirit of adventure, spread awareness about NCC activities and motivate youngsters to join the armed forces. "This expedition takes students on an adventure trip across real India. Cadets will come out of their comfort zone and experience the other world that surrounds them. It is the zeal to give back something to the nation," said Col. PK Singh.