

Guru Purnima celebrations at Jain College

The Hindi Parishad team of Jain College, V V Puram organized 'Guru Poornima' celebration on 19 July as a gratitude and honor towards the teachers. The forum extended the greetings to all other branches of Jain College - JC Road, RR Nagar, Jayanagar and Kanakpura. It was a complete festive ambience with the lobby decorated colorfully. The students recited shlokas about guru followed by many exciting activities like dance, mime, poetry, beatboxing, game for the teachers. The day glorified the traditional practice of honoring the 'Guru' who play a vital role in shaping the career of the pupil. The celebration of Guru Poornima was in practice right from Vedic period where in we had the Gurukula system of education. The shishya would get an overall dimension of education with holistic approach. Guru Shri Vedavyasa was the master mind who gave the world, treasure of knowledge to whom we offer our due respects. The members of Hindi Parishad, the literary forum wished the teaching as well as Non-Teaching staff and members of the campus by presenting handmade book marks and diaries as a "Guru Dakshina". The campus had a joyous atmosphere as Hindi Parishad hosted the first event of 2016 in the Jain College campus. The celebration started off with lighting the auspicious lamp, followed by Bhajan and a classical dance as a tribute to the teachers. The college dance group entertained the teachers with a western dance. The Hindi Parishad dance group also proved that they are no less by giving a crowd-cheering performance. The members made the teachers play a game of "HOUSIE". The celebration was made royal through extravagant decorations. The celebration was co-sponsored by the Bhagyalakshmi Network of Companies. The celebrations also included poetry and a medley by the members.

