

Jain College retains top spot in Commerce in Karnataka II PUC exam

The results of Karnataka Secondary Education Examination Board II PUC 2016 has been declared on 25th June, 2016 and Jain has been brimming with exultation since, for the outstanding performances of its students.

Jain PU departments, spread across four large campuses, have been treading well on the path of offering comprehensive academic experience to its students and takes pride in having produced some of the finest personalities since the time of its inception.

Deeksha Nayak of Jain College VV Puram Campus, who emerged as the commerce topper in the state with 594 marks, was as much elated as were the class toppers from different departments, who gathered together along with their parents at the JGI Knowledge Campus on Wednesday, to celebrate their achievements and share their experiences.

K N Kruthika, who has secured 96.67% in the examination, said that her time-management skill has greatly helped her excel in her examination. "I maintained a consistency in my practice of all the lessons and I used to update myself on latest study materials, preparatory works, and academic exercises." She also attributed her success to the tremendous support of all teaching and non-teaching staffs in Jain. An elated mother of Kruthika said, "It's all because of her hard work that she has secured such nice marks. I would like to tell her to keep on moving on the same track with similar tenacity."

Greeshma Kamath, from the Commerce stream, on the other hand credited her success of securing 97.5% in the examination to her faculties and the extensive coaching that was offered in her college. A proud mother, Mrs. Vandana Kamath echoed the same and urged her daughter to keep up her hard work as she believes, "This success is a result of regular practice and perseverance."

The environment around Jain was invigorated with ecstasy and exuberance of students and their eclectic objectives for life emerged entrancing. The students and their unique approach to life rightly reflects the rich culture and tradition that bind all branches of Jain together.

"Never settle for less and yearn to expand your boundaries, is what I have learned during my stay in Jain College," said an ecstatic Shaiesh, who secured 97% in the exam and wish to pursue a career in law. Apart from being a student of commerce, Shaiesh have taken serious interest in other co-curricular activities since the beginning of the academic year and claims to be competitive in nature that works out well for him to choose a career in law.

Anushka N Sharma, who has secured 96% in Science stream, on the other hand emphasizes that the quality of time that she has spent in preparing herself for the examination has perfectly worked out to bring her success. This young girl who wishes to be an Astro-Physicist says that, “You need to have interest in the subject that you pursue and then only you can excel in it.”

The principals of respective PU campuses along with the PU Program Director Dr. B T Venkatesh joined on the day with the horde of euphoric people, to personally congratulate and wish each student and their parents. The principals who lauded the students for their amazing performances, also urged them not to give in to the societal pressure and aim to fulfil their aspirations. The principals also highlighted the key initiatives taken by the college to hone inter-personal skills of every student and identify their individual interests, as they believe every student is born with a unique talent and their aim is to discover that talent.

This is for the second consecutive year that Jain has been able to clinch the top position in the state in commerce stream and Deeksha Nayak who has made it possible this time, is in awe of her college and the faculties for their immense support and encouragement. “I didn’t expect the first rank at all, but such an amazing result has left me spellbound. My only concentration has been on revising all the lessons on a regular basis and pay heed to all the lectures.” This young achiever who wishes to take up chartered accountancy, has keen interest in music and painting as well. She emphasized the fact that scoring good marks is not the only thing that can help one achieve success in life, inter-personal skills are equally important and play a key role in making a person a complete human being. Gleaming with the fresh taste of success, Deeksha exclaimed, “This success naturally boosted my morale, but this is certainly not the end and I wish to attain more such successes ahead in my life.”
