

A workshop on “How to prepare for a Corporate Career” was organized for students of MBA program (2015-17 Batch) of Jain College as part of its “MBA Master Class Series”

The session focused on letting the students know the attributes that corporates look for during the interview process. Mrs. Annapurna Swarup, OD Strategic Consultant led the session. She stressed on the fact that classroom learning is very much applicable in the workplace. She suggested how certain words need to be substituted citing the example of how ‘weakness’ can be referred to as ‘developmental areas’ to leave a positive impact. She concluded the session by mentioning the importance of networking and participating in management forums for every management student.
