

DECCAN Chronicle

City, M'luru students corner CET laurels

COMEDK not to hold counselling until the end of CET seat-allotment process, says minister

SHRINIVASA M. IDC
BENGALURU, MAY 30

The Common Entrance Test results were announced on Tuesday, with students from Bengaluru and Mangaluru emerging with flying colours. Incidentally, this is the first year in which medical seats (which will now be allotted through NEET) have been left out of the CET.

Mangaluru students bagged the top honours with Prathik S Nayak, a student of Expert PU College secured the first rank in engineering, BPharma and Pharma-D. Bengaluru-based Rakshita Ramesh, from SB Mahaveer Jain PU College tops the Indian System of Medicine and Homeopathy

Doc verification

The process will begin on June 5, across 16 helpline centres. 'A new centre has been set up at Koppal, CBSE / ISC students who have not yet submitted their marks card can also do so. If the result is withheld for want of second PUC or 12th standard marks card / proof of date of birth, the candidate concerned must submit at least a photocopy of the said document to the KEA office,' explained Mr Rayareddy. Students can email their documents to keaauthority-ka@nic.in or submit them in person

The ones who stole the show

ENGINEERING

1. Prathik S Nayak, Expert PU College, Mangaluru
2. Sumanth R Hegde, VVS Sardar Partel PU College, Bengaluru
3. Anirudh S, RV PU College, Jayanagar Bengaluru

BSc (agri)

1. Rakshita Ramesh, SB Mahaveer Jain PU College, Bengaluru
2. Sankeerth Sadananda, DPS, Bengaluru

ISM & Homoeopathy

1. Rakshita Ramesh, SB Mahaveer Jain PU College, Bengaluru

2. Victor Thomas, Vaishnavi Chethana PU College, Davanagere

VETERINARY SCIENCE (BSc)

1. Victor Thomas, Vaishnavi Chethana PU College, Davanagere
2. Rakshita Ramesh, SB Mahaveer Jain PU College, Bengaluru

BPHARMA-PHARMA D

1. Prathik S Nayak, Expert PU College, Mangaluru
2. Sumanth R Hegde, VVS Sardar Partel PU College, Bengaluru