

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Aditi Upadhya, a student of Jain PU College, scored 100 in Sanskrit, accountancy, basic mathematics and statistics. Her father, Gopalkrishna said: "She has been consistently good in studies. She even used to go for Bharatanatyam classes during study leave. Her attentiveness in class and dedication have paid off," he said.

Samarth G Vasist of Jain PU College scored 100 in three subjects. His father Ganesh said: "He took two months off to prepare at home. He would study for almost 10 hours a day. His aim is to join IIT."
