

THE  NEW
INDIAN EXPRESS

City boy gets 4th rank in NEET

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
 @Bengaluru

A BENGALURU boy has bagged All India Rank 4 in the National Eligibility cum Entrance Test (NEET) 2017, results of which were announced on Friday. Sankeerth Sadananda of Delhi Public School (DPS)-South is the only student from the state to find a place in the top 25. Rakshitha Ramesh from Jain PU college, VV Puram in Bengaluru has secured All India Rank 41.

Sankeerth had recently cracked All India Institute for

Sankeerth
Sadananda

Medical Sciences (AIIMS) entrance test with 27th rank and topped CET from Karnataka.

He has decided to join AIIMS, Delhi and he wants to become a cardiologist or neurologist in future.

"My scores and ranks have never disturbed my lifestyle. I am not a bookworm. I used to watch TV, sleep for at least seven hours and even possessed a mobile phone," Sankeerth told Express.

"We never stopped him from doing anything. He used to chat with his friends and enjoy life. Instead, he used to restrict us from doing certain things. We are extremely happy and thankful to his teachers and faculty members at BASE," said Sankeerth's father Sadananda.

Rakshitha Ramesh, who is also a BASE student, had earlier secured first rank in Indian System of Medicine and Homeopathy in CET. However, she chose to get into Bangalore Medical College.

NEET RESULTS: P3,9