

THE TIMES OF INDIA

41st ranker Rakshita gets 677 marks

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bengaluru: Rakshita Ramesh of SB Mahaveer Jain PU College has secured 41st rank in the National Eligibility cum Entrance Test.

"I was six when my grandmother, who I was very close to, died of stroke. Over the years, I realized that I wanted to study medicine to understand the complicated neurological health issues," said Rakshita who secured 677 out of 720.

Rakshita Ramesh

She has an offer from the Indian Institute of Science under the Kishore Vaigyanik Protsahan Yojna, a fellowship programme funded by the department of science and technology, about which she is yet to decide. Rakshita also scored 98% in Karnataka CET earlier this year.

"The integrated coaching in my college saved lots of my time. It helped me focus and I spent considerable time on self-study, which strengthened my base and concepts," she said.

Other NEET rank holders from Bengaluru are Kabilan A (769) and Rajarajan (959). Twenty five students of ALLEN Bengaluru also cleared the exam.