

Jain College - Magazine Editorial Board Committee

The College Magazine Editorial Board Committee at Jain College is responsible for overseeing the development and publication of the annual college magazine. This committee works to provide a platform for students, faculty, and staff to showcase their creative writing, artwork, poetry, essays, and other forms of expression. The magazine serves as a reflection of the college's vibrant academic, cultural, and social atmosphere, promoting a sense of community and pride.

1. Objectives

- To curate and publish the annual college magazine, providing a platform for students, faculty, and staff to express their creativity.
- To encourage participation from the entire college community in the form of articles, poems, stories, artwork, and photography.
- To foster a sense of pride and unity within the college by highlighting its achievements, events, and culture.
- To promote and celebrate the academic, cultural, and extracurricular activities of the college through written content and visuals.
- To enhance students' skills in writing, editing, and content creation by involving them in the editorial process.
