

STUDENT GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL COMMITTEE

The Grievance Redressal Committee (GRC) is established to address and resolve complaints lodged by students in a timely and efficient manner. Students are encouraged to submit their grievances related to both academic and non-academic matters through the online platform or the grievance/suggestion box. The institution is committed to ensuring that all grievances are resolved within a specified timeframe, promoting a fair and supportive environment for all students.

OBJECTIVES

1. The Grievance Redressal Committee aims to provide students and staff with a fair and transparent platform to raise concerns or complaints.
2. It seeks to ensure the timely and efficient resolution of grievances, maintaining fairness and objectivity throughout the process.
3. The system strives to promote a positive and supportive campus environment by addressing issues that affect the well-being of the college community.
4. It works to identify and suggest improvements in institutional policies, services, or infrastructure based on the feedback received through grievances.

MECHANISIM OF GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL COMMITTEE:

“Personal Grievance” means, and includes, complaint(s) made by an aggrieved student in respect of the following, namely:

- The college reserves the right to reject any document or award that a student submits for admission or scholarship unless it is in the form of a certificate or degree or diploma or any other document that shows that he or she is committed to pursuing any course or program of study.
- The college may also refuse admission to a student if it has received a demand for money beyond the stipulated amount.
- Non-payment of scholarship or delay in payment of financial aid may also be considered as an admission condition.
- If the college has to delay the declaration of results or the conduct of examinations beyond the schedule prescribed by the UGC, this condition may be considered an admission condition.
- The college may also ask for an extension of the deadline if it cannot provide student amenities as per the prospectus.
- Grievances may also be made in connection with the evaluation of answer scripts.
- The college may also deny admission to a student who withdraws within the time indicated in the prospectus, or delay in the refund of fees.
- Complaints of discrimination against students from various backward classes, women, minorities, and persons with disabilities may be made to the college.
- Quality education that is not provided or promised at the time of admission is denied. Also, harassment or discrimination is committed against students.

The College has a multi-tiered Grievance Redressal Mechanism that is effective and objective, consisting of several forums and committees, and focuses on the careful and sensitive handling of student grievances. For the resolution of various types of grievances, the following committees/cells/units have been established:
